

SÃO MATIAS
DÃO

SÃO MATIAS WHITE RESERVE WINE – ENCRUZADO 2015

ORIGIN:

Serra da Estrela sub region, vines located in altitudes between 450 and 550 meters high, situated in granitic soils between Tourais and Vila Nova de Tazém.

YEAR DESCRIPTION

The present year was good for our region, for it didn't rain so much and we had a long period of heat. With dry nights and sunny mornings, it provided excellent conditions for the beginning of the harvest. The harvest started with the white grapes in the first week of September.

WINEMAKING

The grapes were pressed slowly for controlled extration. The Must rest it for 24 hours, followed by a slow alcoholic fermentation in french oak barrels. The wine it aged during 8 months in bâtonnage.

OENOLOGIST: Francisco Gonçalves

WINEMAKER NOTES:

This wine has a magnificent nose. It's very aromatic with some elegant yellow flowers and wood notes.

On the mouth it is fresh with a great minerality. It is full bodied and complex with a long and tuneful after taste.
